What is a credit guide?

A Credit Guide sets out important information about the services that we provide as a licensee broker, any fees and commission payable to us, our responsible lending obligations, and our internal and external dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them. We are required to provide this Credit Guide to you as soon as practicable after it becomes apparent that we are likely to provide credit assistance to you.

What is credit assistance?

We provide credit assistance when we:

- Suggest or assist you to apply for a particular credit contract with a particular credit provider; or
- Suggest or assist you to apply for an increase to the credit limit of a particular credit contract with a particular credit provider; or
- Suggest you remain in a particular credit contract with a particular credit provider.

Which credit providers or Lessors do we utilise when providing credit assistance?

We source credit products from a limited number of banks, lenders and other credit providers. At present, we can write loans with the following banks, lenders and other credit providers, but we do use others:

- Pepper
- Finance One
- AMMF
- Latitude Financial
- Liberty Financial
- Plenti
- Now Finance
- Wisr
- Greenlight
- LoanU
- Money3
- Affordable Car Loans

How will I pay for the credit assistance provided?

The actual fee depends on the extent of work we need to undertake on your behalf but will not exceed $2,500 - Two Thousand, Five Hundred Dollars (Including GST). The actual amount will be confirmed in the credit proposal we present to you prior to your acceptance of the credit we have obtained. This fee will be payable at the time the funds are released by the credit provider. No fee is charged if you do not accept the credit proposal.

We will provide you with a credit quote containing details of our fees and any payments made to us by credit providers before we provide you with credit assistance.

What information is required to receive credit assistance?

Before we provide you with credit assistance, we are required to complete a Preliminary Assessment.

This preliminary assessment makes enquiries about:

- your requirements and objectives for seeking a credit product
- your financial and relevant personal situation; and
- your repayment capacity.

We may also request documentation to verify the information contained in the preliminary assessment, such as pay slips, letter of employment and bank statements.

What information is kept on my credit file and can I examine my file?

We maintain a record of your personal profile including details gathered as part of our preliminary assessment.

You are entitled to request a copy of our Preliminary Assessment, and we must give you a copy if requested. There is no charge for requesting or receiving a copy of the Preliminary Assessment:

- at any time during the first 2 years - we must provide it within 7 business days; or
- between 2 years and 7 years after it was conducted - we must provide it within 21 business days

We are committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy, which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information.

Are commissions, fees or other benefits paid to Ausloans Pty Ltd by the credit provider?

When we provide you with credit assistance, we (or our directors, employees and authorised credit representatives) receive commissions from the credit providers involved. We may receive the following commissions when we provide credit assistance to you:

- Upfront Commission.
- Additional Commission depending on the total volume of business we place with the credit provider.

We can provide, on request, a reasonable estimate of the commission, fees and benefits and how they are calculated.

Are commissions paid by Ausloans Pty Ltd to other parties?

We may pay a referral fee to people or organisations that refer clients to us who receive credit assistance from Ausloans Pty Ltd. All amounts paid to the referrer are from Ausloans Pty Ltd's share of the commission and benefits. You won't pay any additional amount if we pay a referral fee. A referral fee is only paid to the referrer by Ausloans Pty Ltd on settlement of a loan. We can provide, on request, a reasonable estimate of the commission and how it is calculated.

What is a suitability assessment?

By law, we must not provide you with credit assistance if the credit contract is unsuitable for you. If unsuitable, we cannot:

- Suggest or assist you to apply for a particular credit contract with a particular credit provider; or
- Suggest or assist you to apply for an increase to the credit limit of a particular credit contract with a particular credit provider; or
- Suggest that you remain in your particular credit contract with your particular credit provider.

When is a credit contract or consumer lease unsuitable?

A credit contract or consumer lease will be unsuitable if:

It is likely that you will be unable to comply with the financial obligations under the credit contract; or
It is likely that you could only comply with the financial obligations with substantial hardship (such as having to sell your principal place of residence); or
It is likely that the credit contract will not meet your stated requirements or objectives.

We want to ensure that the credit products you select with us are not unsuitable for your needs. Because of this, it is important that you openly and honestly discuss with us your requirements, objectives, preferences, financial situation and repayment capacity.

What should I do if I have a complaint about the Credit Licensee?

If you have a complaint or concern about the service provided to you by the licensee, please contact their Complaints Resolution Manager. As part of the Internal Dispute Resolution policy they will investigate the matter and endeavour to address it as quickly as possible.
